How to . . .

SLIPPER SOLE FINISHES

METHOD 1: Starting at center back of heel, using crochet hook and color given in instructions, * insert hook thru perforation in leather, draw yarn thru, having lp long enough to reach top of leather, yo and thru 2 lps on hook, ch 1, repeat from * around. Join with a sl st; fasten off.

METHOD 2: Starting at center back of heel, using crochet hook and color given in instruction, * insert hook thru perforation in leather, draw yarn thru, having lp long enough to reach top of leather, yo draw thru 2 lps on hook, * insert hook in same perforation across back and thru to next perforation, yo and draw yarn across back to first perforation, yo and drawn yarn thru 2 lps, insert yarn in same perforation, yo and draw thru 2 lps on hook, repeat from * around. Join with a sl st; fasten off.

TO ATTACH TOP SOLES: Pin knitted or crocheted work around the finished edge of the leather, being sure to match center fronts and backs evenly.

METHOD 1: TO JOIN WITH SLIP STITCH: With sole side to you, starting at center back of heel, using crochet hook and yarn given in instructions, * insert hook thru sc st of sole and thru st in top piece, yo and draw yarn thru both thicknesses and st on hook. Do not work tight. Work into each st in the same manner, around; fasten off. Make a second row of sl st with the opposite side of work to you, working into same sts. This gives a very neat double edge.

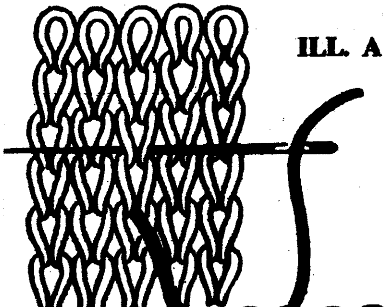
METHOD 2: TO JOIN WITH CROSS STITCH: Thread tapestry needle with color given in instructions. Start at center back of heel, bringing needle thru the 2 lps of sc st in sole, *sk 1 sc, draw needle thru the 2 lps of sc in top piece and 2 lps of corresponding st in sole, repeat from * around. When row is completed, reverse work, going back in the opposite direction. This forms a cross st across center of joining.

METHOD 3: TO JOIN WITH OVERCAST ST: Thread tapestry needle with color given in instructions. Starting at center back of heel, * bring needle under and up thru sc st on sole, over and down thru corresponding sc st on top piece, repeat from * around.

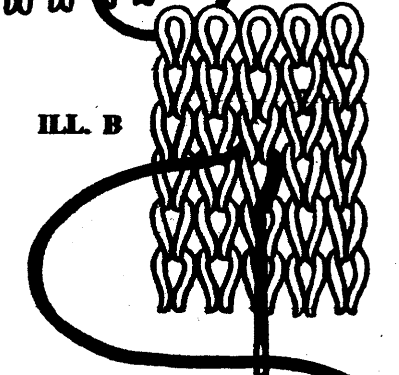
FLAT SOLES: To attach top to sole, pin work around sole evenly, matching center front and heel. Use an overcast st and whip the edge of top to the heavy thread along sole edge.

DUPLICATE STITCH

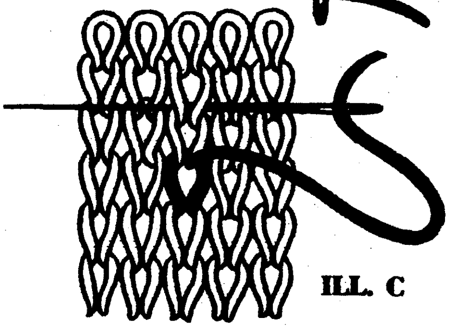
DUPLICATE STITCH is the most popular for embroidering a desired motif on a knitted garment. It is worked by: * bringing needle through center of stitch from the wrong side to right side of work—(See Ill. A). Following the outline of the knit stitch above, draw the yarn across the back of the two strands of this stitch—(See Ill. A and B) return needle to the center of the same stitch—(See Ill. B) and draw yarn through. Repeat from *, starting next stitch by bringing needle through center of stitch just completed—(See Ill. C)



ILL. A



ILL. B



ILL. C

TO INCREASE

Knit (or purl) 1 st but do not slip stitch from left needle as usual, knit (or purl) again into back thread of same stitch and then slip stitch from left needle. To keep both edges alike increase in first stitch on row and in next to last st on row.

TO DECREASE

1: Knit (or purl) 2 sts together, inserting right needle into 2 sts at a time instead of one.

2: "Slip, knit and pass"—means to slip 1 stitch, k 1 and pass slipped stitch over knit stitch (psso). The k 2 sts tog decrease slants from left to right and the slip, k and pass slants from right to left. To keep both edges alike, on right side of work, slip, k and pass at the beg of row, k 2 tog at end of row.

TO SLIP A STITCH

Slip stitch from one needle to another needle without knitting or purling it, inserting the right needle in the stitch as if to knit unless specified to slip as if to purl.

FINISH BUTTONHOLES

METHOD 1: OVERCAST STITCH: In the overcast st the thread is brought from the underside of buttonhole edge thru to the top over and under again. Sts are placed close tog.

METHOD 2: BUTTONHOLE STITCH: Worked in the same manner as overcast st, except that before drawing the needle entirely thru the material, throw the lp of thread over the point of the needle, thus forming a knot at the inside edge of buttonhole.

BUTTONHOLES AND CARDIGANS—The fronts of a cardigan are referred to as "Right Front" and "Left Front." Remember the Right Front will be on the right side when being worn. In order to properly space buttonholes make button side first—mark the position of the buttons at even intervals on this piece. Then work other piece making buttonholes correspond to markings. To make a neat, finished buttonhole: cast off sts on wrong side and cast on sts on right side.

MAKE HAIRPIN LACE

Step 1—Make a loop at end of ball thread (Fig 1).

Step 2—Insert hook in loop and wind ball thread around right prong of staple (Fig 1).

Step 3—Thread over hook and draw through loop, keeping loop at center (Fig 1).

Step 4—Raise hook to a vertical position and turn staple to the left (Fig. 2).

Step 5—Thread over hook and draw through loop on hook (Fig. 3).

Step 6—Insert hook in loop of left prong (Fig. 4).

Step 7—Thread over hook and draw loop through (2 loops on hook), thread over and draw through 2 loops.

Step 8—Repeat Steps 4 to 7 incl until staple is filled.

Step 9—Remove all but the last 4 loops from staple and continue as before for length desired.

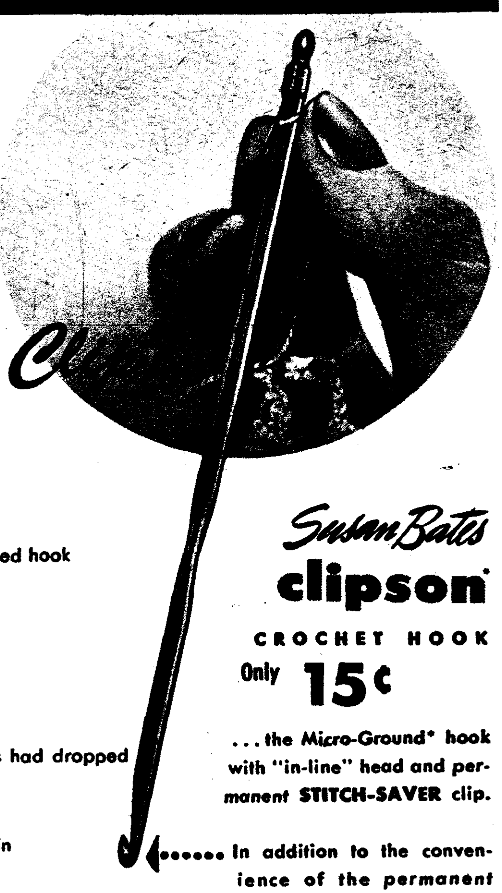
the PERMANENT

STITCH-SAVER Clip



NANCY DISCOVERS A NEW CONVENIENCE

When Nancy crocheted with an old-fashioned hook
Her patience would often wear thin.
In the midst of a count – or a difficult stitch
Interruption would always barge in.

She'd rush off in a hurry, to open the door
And drop her work loose on a chair.
And when she got back, she'd find stitches had dropped
And Nancy just sighed with despair.

"If only I knew what would save me this pain
Of re-counting and doing each stitch."
"Well," said a good friend, "let me make it quite plain
It's high time that you made a switch . . .

"To a Susan Bates CLIPSON*, a wonderful hook,
With a permanent clip on the top.
Just one easy slip of the thread to the clip
And your stitches will never more drop."

Now interrupt Nancy as much as you please,
Her work always stays as it should –
Secure and together – her temper's at ease.
She just "never had it so good."

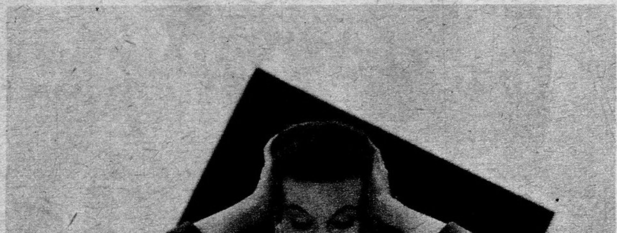
INFLUENCE: The Middy



you want THE BEST that fashion offers

THE MIDDY has probably had more influence on this year's fashions than any other single factor. It has changed necklines, hiplines and silhouette.

THE OVER BLOUSE a direct descendent of the middy —modified though it be. Belted or unbelted it reaches far below the waist giving a clean long line.

DRESSES whether one- or two-piece are dramatically simple with an exaggerated line here or there. The skirts are straight as stalks or full and easy with the fullness starting well below the waistline. Ribbing or pattern stitches are used with noticeable effect.

NECKLINES are varied with a tendency to flatter. The V neck has been softened with a soft roll or is filled-in with ribbing. The tulip-neck is really a big loose turtle-neck that may be pulled down or to the side. . . . And the cardigan neckline seems to be here to stay. We like it because it lends itself happily to scarves, necklaces and clips. It is comfortable and uncluttered.

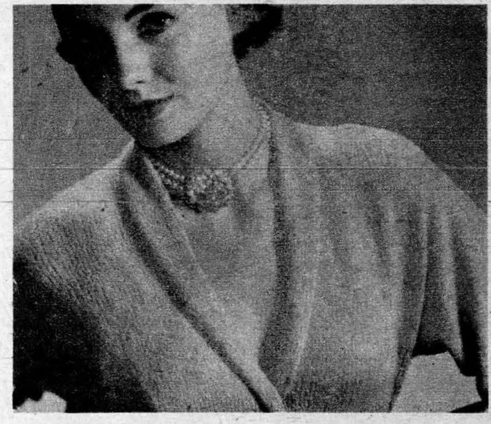
SLEEVES and shoulder lines have less padding and aim at being pretty. The sleeves are cuffed or puffed . . . bracelet length or pushed up.

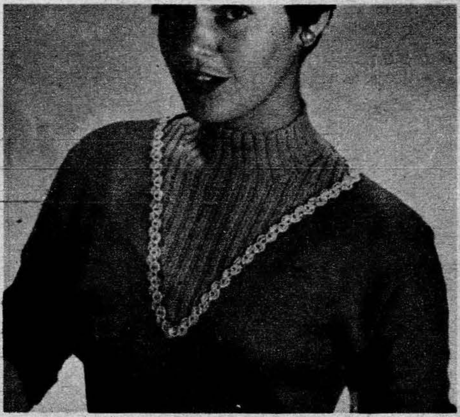
WAISTLINES are natural with a molded look obtained by interesting treatment above or below the waist. Wide belts, cummerbunds, the wrapped hipline and high ribbing are used to achieve this slim, molded appearance.

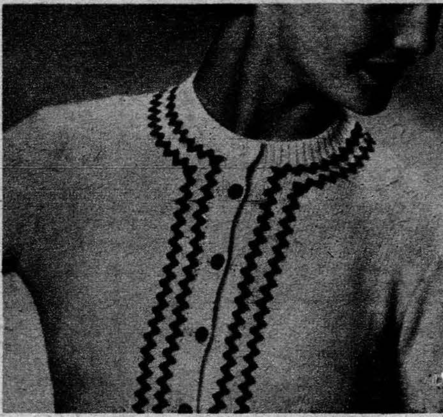
COATS are suit covers. They are textured and for the most part tubular . . . with little or no flare.

TEXTURE plays an important role from head to toe. Hats are bulkier with a slightly rough look—nice with tweeds. Dresses and coats are given surface interest through the stitch or the yarn used.

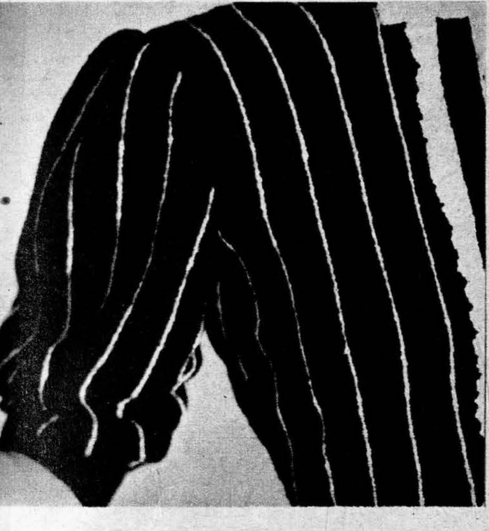
From OUR OUTLINE FOR WINTER, on the following pages, you may select and make your winter wardrobe, secure in the knowledge that you have the best that fashion offers. Your Editor.



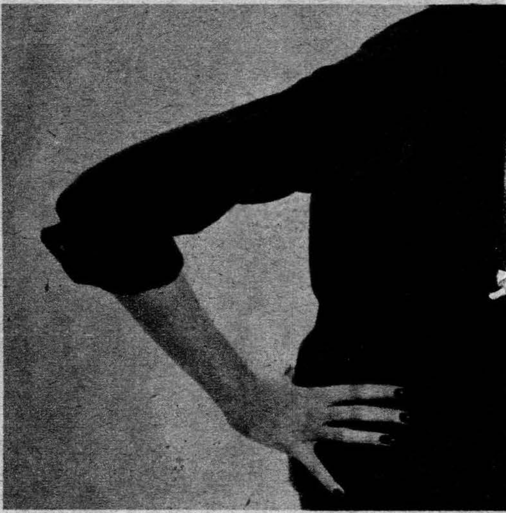


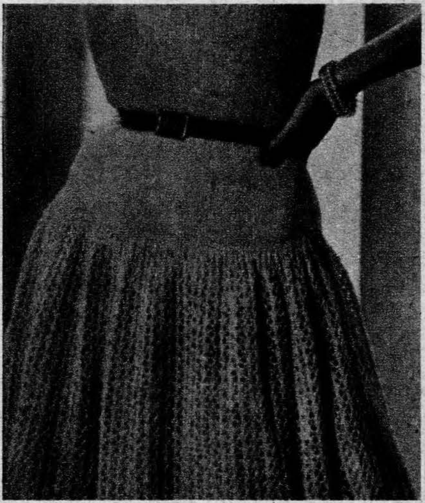


NECKLINES: Are softly V . . . Filled-in . . . Cardigan

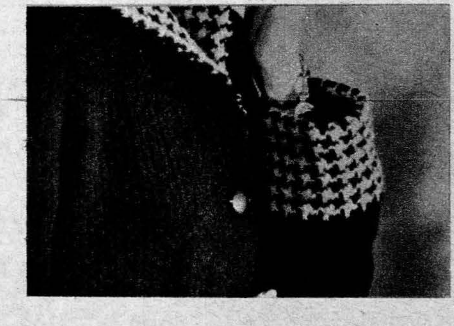


SLEEVES and shoulder lines have less padding and more puff . . . are raglan or dolman and are cuffed just below the elbow.





TEXTURE through stitch



WAISTLINES tend to be tiny and natural with interesting details above or below.

THE DRAMATIC

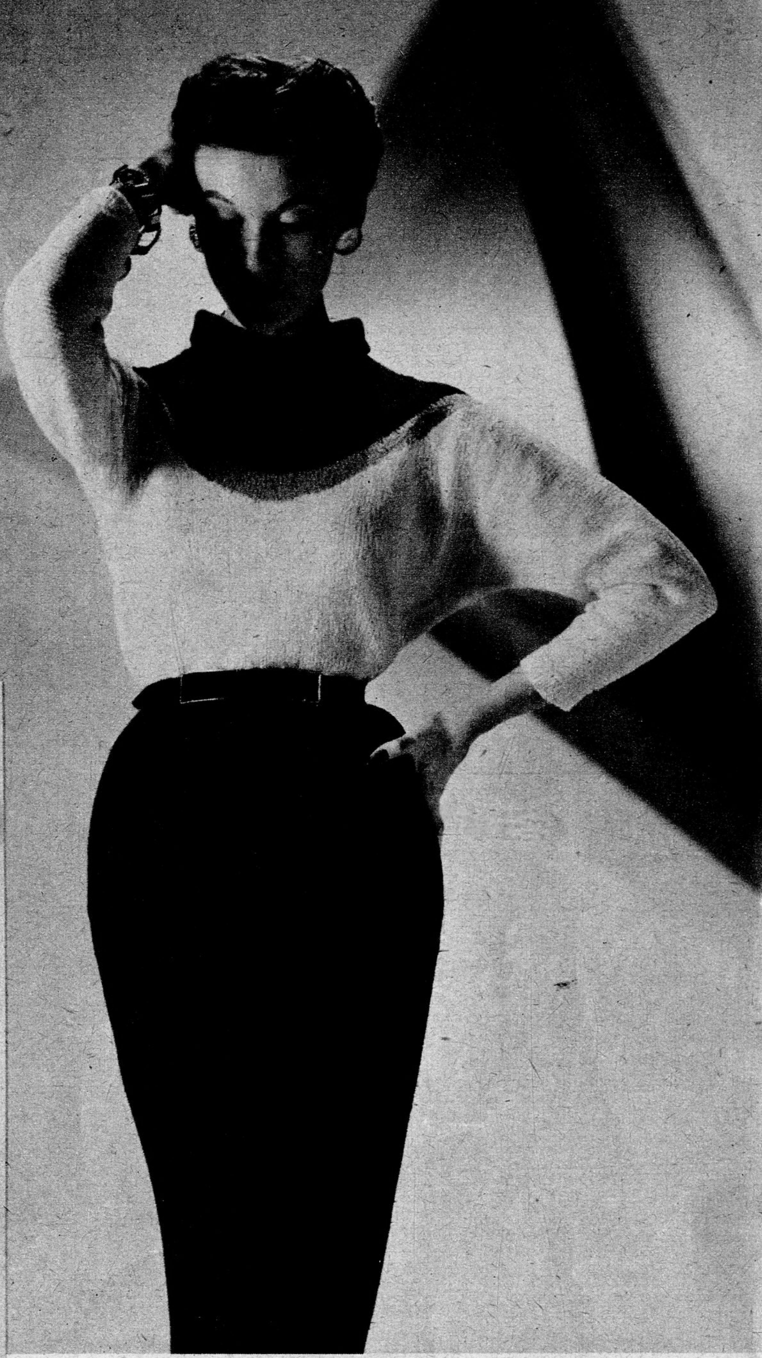
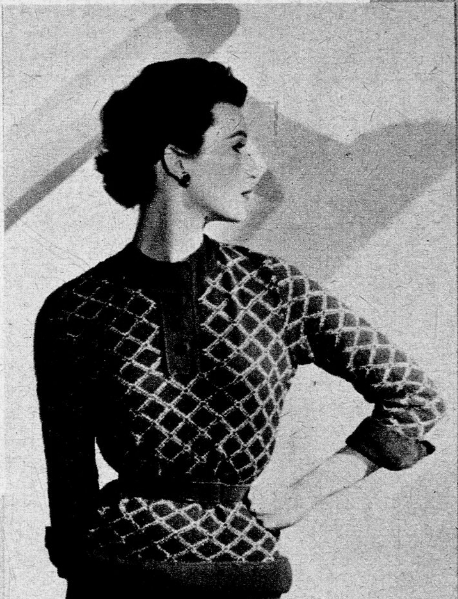
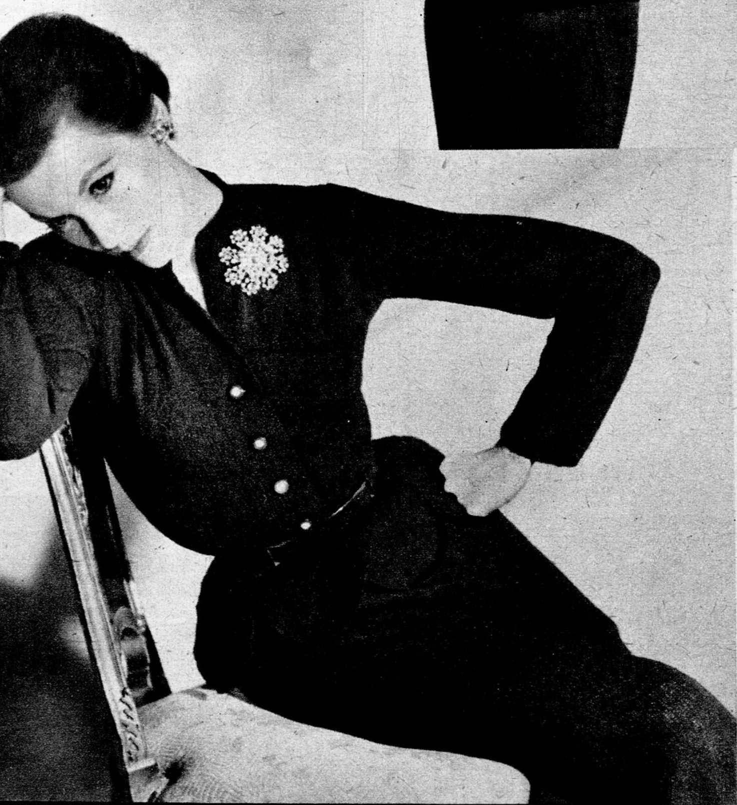
of dresses



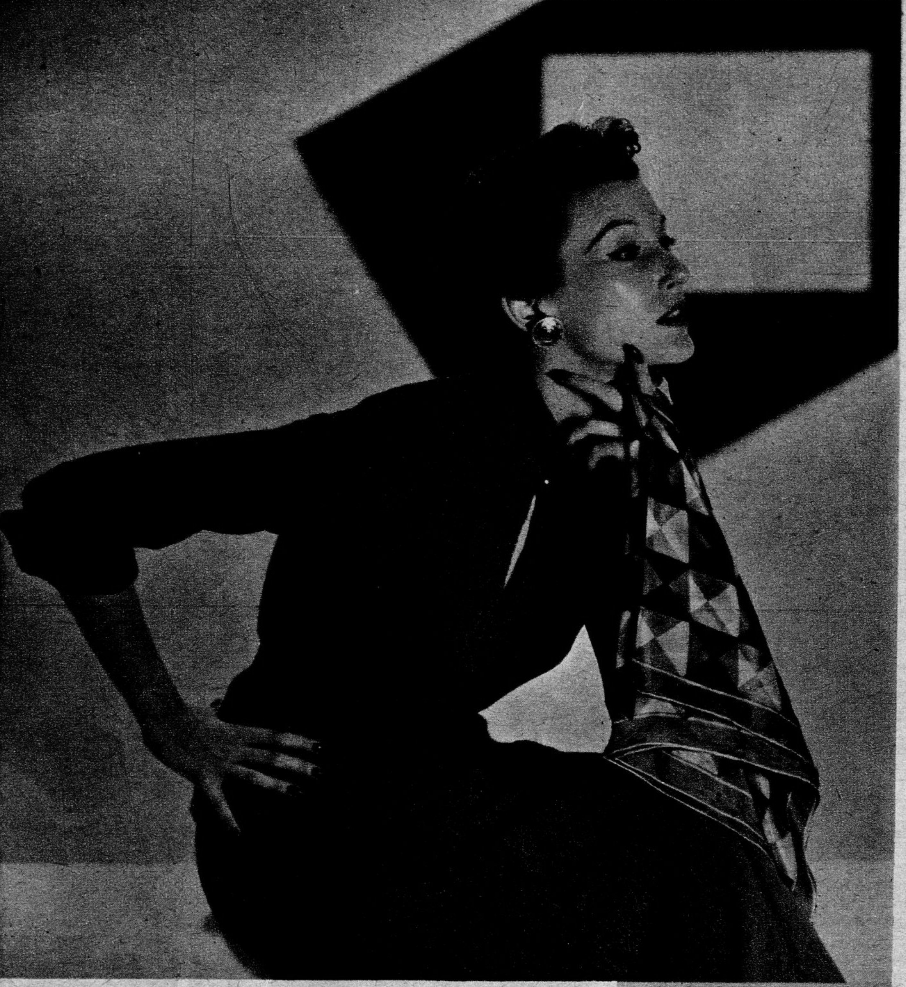




COVER STORY: A Persian Blue reed-slim skirt and three well styled tops. The long overblouse (cover and center of page), showing the middy influence, is fitted and belted to carry out the straight-as-a-die look. Dashed with Candied Rose and White it can shuttle smartly between town and country.

Candied Rose underlines the big loose turtle neck, of Persian Blue, on this White Pullover (above). Worn with the same skirt and narrow suede belt it unexpectedly has the look of a one-piece dress.

The stark simplicity of the Petal Jacket (left) is the secret of its beauty. Accessorize it as you will—for shopping in town or with your best rhinestones for dinner and theater. Directions for each on page 12.



OUTLINE FOR WINTER approves the MIDDY LOOK of the long overblouse

The long OVERBLOUSE, solid or striped, is in the foreground of the fashion picture this year—

The Solid Color Blouse (above) has raglan sleeves that end in buttoned cuffs . . . and a small collar. It may be worn belted or unbelted . . . or tucked into its matching skirt.

The ribbing detail of the Skirt points up the smartness of this blouse and that of its team mate (right). This Striped Blouse may be belted, or worn straight and loose as a middy—The stripes are interrupted, just below the neckline by slits through which a scarf may be drawn. The models shown are of BERNAT'S PAULAINE.

Directions for Sizes 14, 16 and 18 may be obtained by writing for LEAFLET W17-40, 10¢—for ordering see page 74, column 2.

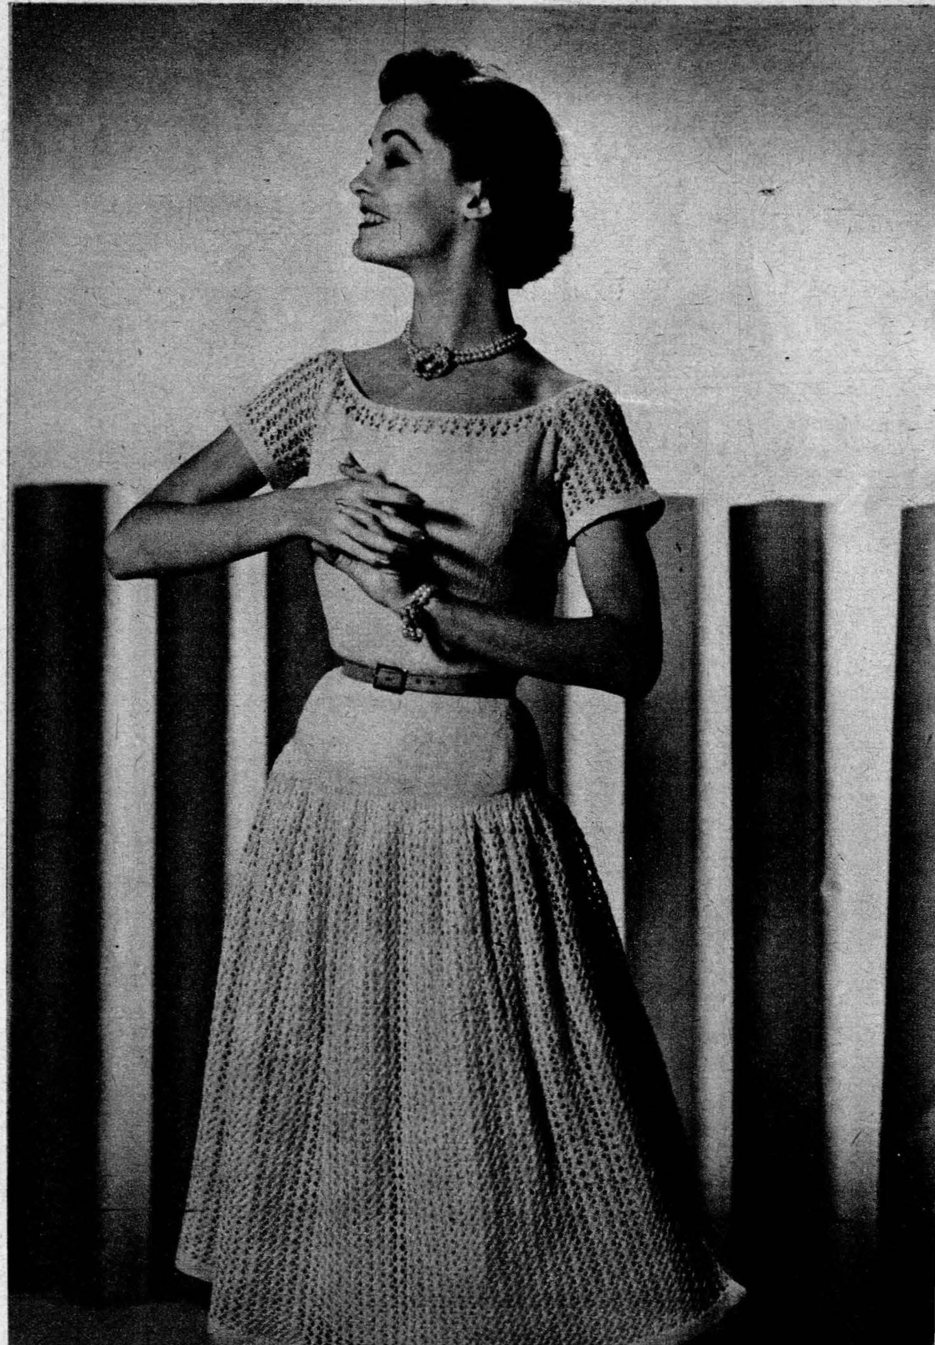
OUTLINE FOR WINTER:

underlines the natural waistline of the ONE-PIECE DRESS



Dresses of a Classic nature are belted, with molded hipline, and a gentle flare of skirt starting well below the waist. The tailored type has a simple bodice and a pleated look to the skirt. The more dressy frock has a low oval neckline showing the tendency towards the pretty portrait effect. The lacy pattern, of skirt and sleeves makes a thing of beauty of an otherwise simple classic.

Directions for the RIBBED SKIRT DRESS (above) and the LACE STITCH DRESS are on page 16.

jackets come off

. . . but this winter, jackets and cardigans go over everything and especially pleasantly over sheath-like halters.

Opposite page—A white halter narrowly striped with royal blue. The high ribbing at the neck may be turned down when the matching cardigan is added. Directions for Striped Halter on page 21—for Matching Cardigan on page 20.

Right—A brief little halter with tiny collar and a sprinkling of sequins is smart as can be alone or enclosed in its own deep V'd cardigan. Directions for the Set on page 21, column 3.

TEXTURE plays a leading role in hats this year—rough-textured with a slight chunkiness is the new note. The four hats on these two pages point up this trend:

1. PROFILE HAT—Rug yarn and tinsel combined to make a hat that starts high on one side and sweeps gracefully down to chin-line on the other. Directions on page 44.

2. JIFFY CLOCHE—a brim that rolls the way you want it to. Rug yarn provides the right "top" for heavy coating-fabric dresses. Directions on page 44.

3. SAILOR HAT—a new version of an enduring favorite—by combining the new yarn, Heathermist, and Chenille makes a smart, up-to-the-minute chapeau. Directions on page 44.

4. CHENILLE EVENING BAG—with bird cage top—an excellent gift for a college or career girl. Directions on page 63.

5. CROCHETED GLOVES—black with pink popcorn trim is very effective. See page 45.

6. BOX BAG—a favorite style with a new covering—Heathermist in a rough surface stitch. See page 74.

7. BEADED CLOCHE—Beads give it the important "rough" look. See page 44.

8. SLIPCOVER BAG—One frame with two covers—Chenille for dressy occasions and straw with beads for more general use. See page 44.

Any of these hats, bags, or the gloves will make a delightful gift of lasting value not just because it is a smart accessory but because it was made by you.

FINISHING

Careful finishing of a knitted garment is well worth the trouble for your dress or sweater will fit better and look better.

Work at least one row or sc around the edges (not seam edges)—this not only gives a finished appearance but will prevent edges from curling. Then block each piece:

1. Lay pieces, wrong side up, on flat, padded surface and pin the edges with rust-proof pins.

2. Place a damp cloth over piece and press with a hot iron. Lift the iron from place to place—don't push.

3. Allow piece to dry thoroughly. When all pieces have been blocked it is a good idea to pin the garment together on your dress form or baste it together and try it on—in this way any necessary adjustments may be made. When the garment has been fitted sew the seams using a back stitch or crochet them using a slip stitch—in either case be sure to keep the seam as elastic as the knitted fabric.

If no adjustments were required and the edges are even weave the seams together.

Press the seams.

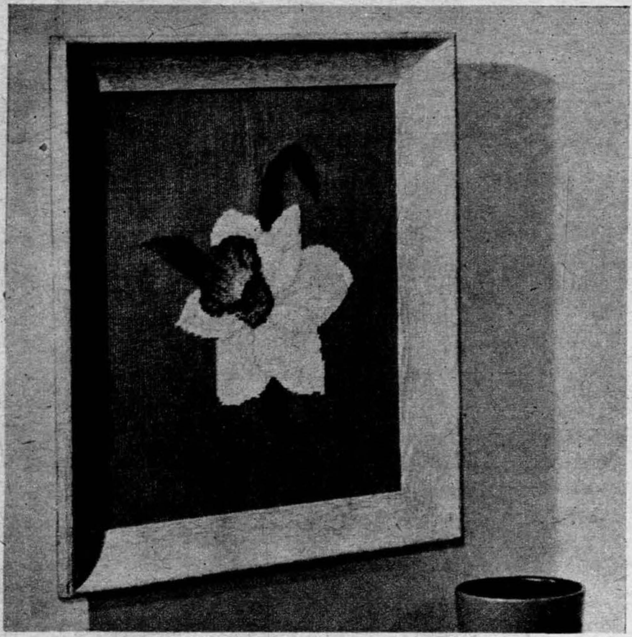
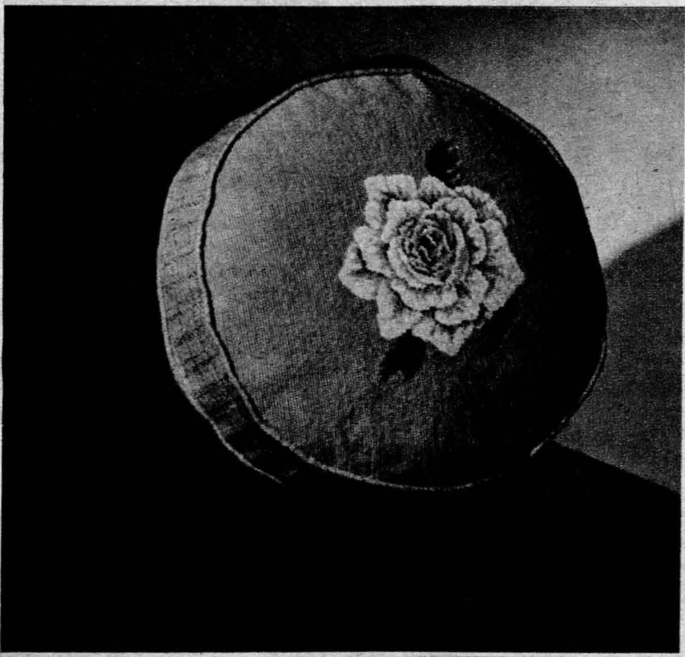
NEEDLEPOINT

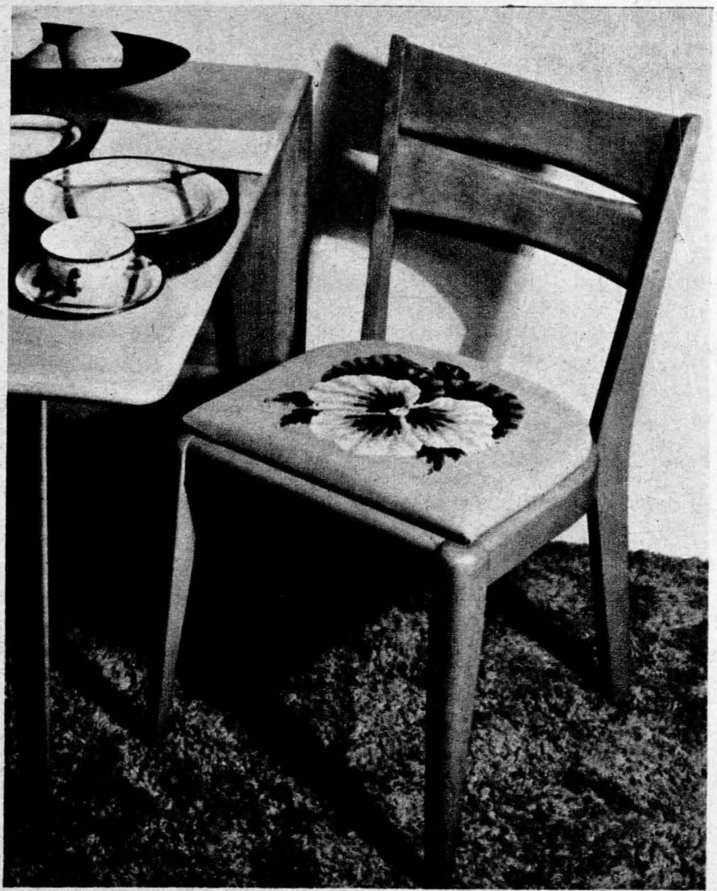
. . . a new version

Though NEEDLEPOINT has always been beautiful and has long been cherished by people who love "nice things" there has been a feeling on the part of some, that it did not quite fit in with their very modern décor. Now these folks too, may enjoy it for the new version is extremely modern in the use of color and design. A new series of floral pieces makes use of bolder and brighter colors and more simplified motifs than ever were used before. With backgrounds of clear clean Chartreuse, Aqua, Ivory, Ash rose, and even Antique White against bleached woods, it is breathtakingly lovely.



These are close-ups of some of the pieces used on opposite page. Above—Jonquil picture. Below—White Rose as pillow covering. Right—Pansy as covering on a Slip-Seat Chair.





Needlepoint gives the softness and charm that is so often lacking in the modern type room.

Right—The grouping of four pictures (Rose, Pansies and Poppy) is just right over a table in the dining section of your living room.

Below—This living room, of which we show a corner, is more livable and attractive with its two large pictures (a Gloxinia and a Jonquil); the four small ones are a Rose, a Poppy and two Pansies; the chair seat is a Pansy. In each setting the furniture and the shadow frames are of light wood.

Room settings by BLOOMINGDALE BROS., New York City.

The entire Needlepoint series will be available in their New York store as well as at your favorite counters across the country.

THE NEEDLEPOINT SERIES IS A PRODUCT OF JOHN DRITZ AND SONS.

AMERICAN DESIGNER PATTERNS

Paris and the French notwithstanding, American women have come to realize that fashion's highest interpretation is stemming from this country's own designers. They know, too, that American Designer Patterns are the perfect medium through which they can create their clothes with the timeless styling, the high fashion that mark these classics of the haute couture. Now Modern Needlecraft offers these patterns to its readers—patterns that are the exact replicas of the designers' favorite creations—made from the designers' very own blueprints. T-1081 TONI OWEN'S theory about separates is to mix-em up, wear 'em anywhere. Miss Owen recommends wool or velvet for skirt, velvet for blouse. Size 12 requires 4 yds of 36" or 39" fabric for skirt, 1½ yds of 36" fabric with nap for blouse. Sizes 10-18, $1.00.

T-1083 VERA MAXWELL long noted for her marvelously comfortable clothes. This two-piecer uses a minimum of padding, showing the female form as it's really meant to be. Miss Maxwell recommends faille or lightweight wool. Size 12 requires 3 yds of 54″ fabric. Sizes 12-20, $1.00.

T-701 CLAIRE McCARDELL adheres to her belief that clothes should be flattering, comfortable to wear and adaptable to any fabric. This glamorously low cut dress lends itself to any fabric of your choice. Size 14 requires 5¾ yds of 39″ fabric. Sizes 10-16, $1.00.

T-1043 MONTE SANO AND PRUZAN created this little coat to serve admirably for day or nighttime. We think the perfect choice of fabric would be one of the new handsome wools, lined with bright taffeta. Size 12 requires 3½ yds of 35″ fabric, while the lining requires 1¾ yds of 39″ fabric. Sizes 10-18, $1.00.

for the holiday season

T-1016 CLAIRE McCARDELL thinks that glamor is important to any girl, every woman and here she fashions a gossamer dance frock for that most important night of your life. Size 12 requires 8½ yds of 36″ fabric. Sizes 10-16, $1.00.

T-1047 JO COPELAND created this two-piece suit, frosted it with pristine collar and cuffs. She liked it in black faille, but you might prefer it in any lightweight wool, with velvet for your icing. Size 12 requires 4½ yds of 39″ fabric and 1 yd of 35″ fabric for the trim. Sizes 12-20, $1.00.

T-1042 SYLVAN RICH designed this all-day dress for the woman who is five feet five and under. Mrs. Rich says it's a natural for crepe, but you might prefer rayon gabardine, faille, or any dress-weight wool. Size 12 requires 4¼ yds of 39″ fabric. Sizes 12-20, $1.00.

T-1070 CHARLES NUDELMAN designed this coat dress that is so wearable, so flattering and so easy to make. It would look well also in lightweight wool, crepe, faille or taffeta. Size 12 requires 3⅛ yds of 54″ fabric. Sizes 12-20, $1.00.
